

COVID-19 Medical Review for General Population Emergency Shelter

COVID-19 screening for patients who are homeless, including an examination of other underlying medical conditions, is necessary to confirm patient does not require isolation or quarantine and can stay in congregate emergency shelter.

The following individual must have a qualified medical professional evaluate their signs and symptoms for COVID-19 or exposure to COVID-19.

Client Name: _____ DoB: _____

Medical Provider Use Only

Please check one of the following:

- Patient does not require isolation or quarantine and may stay in a general population congregate shelter if in need.
- Patient requires isolation or quarantine due to symptoms, test results, or known exposure. Do not send to emergency shelter. Please call the Homeless Hotline at (614) 274-7000 for further assistance with referral to the Shelter for Isolation and Quarantine (SIQ).

Provider's name (print): _____ Credential(s) _____

Provider's signature: _____ Date: _____

Phone number: _____